As a senior associate - solicitor in Boyes Turner's outstanding medical negligence team, Vanessa Wand, has secured millions of pounds of compensation for her clients.

Vanessa deals exclusively with complex, high value medical negligence claims. She has a specialist interest in obstetric and birth-related injuries to both mother and baby, which include cerebral palsy and severe neonatal injury, maternal death, complex stillbirth with psychiatric maternal injury, perinatal tears and cloacal injury, alongside her broad-based expertise with cases involving amputation, cancer and other life threatening, fatal and permanently disabling conditions.

Working both independently and as an invaluable support to the partners in the group, Vanessa is an expert in quantifying claims involving cerebral palsy and other types of neonatal, severe, neurological injuries, consistently enabling her clients to receive the highest possible compensation awards.

Vanessa is frequently complimented by clients, counsel and defendant solicitors for her professionalism, efficiency and care. She is ranked as a 'Next Generation Lawyer' by The Legal 500, who comment: "another key member is senior associate Vanessa Wand, who 'has a razor sharp mind'". She is also highly valued by other members of Boyes Turner's clinical negligence group, both for her supportive and supervisory roles within the group and as an outstanding and experienced clinical negligence fee earner in her own right.

"You've always been so sensitive to our feelings and at the same time professional, detailed and thorough. Your interest and enthusiasm to help us is always evident." - Client quote

Vanessa is a member of the Law Society's Specialist Clinical Negligence Panel, Action against Medical Accidents (AvMA), the Association of Personal Injury Lawyers (APIL). She is also the firm's representative of the Society of Clinical Injury Lawyers (SCIL).
